Cambridge

A world-famous university city – and a great place to study English

Home to one of the world's most famous universities, Cambridge is a beautiful, historic city with an international outlook and a unique academic atmosphere.

Compact and easy to explore, Cambridge gives students the chance to experience British life while surrounded by centuries of history, culture and learning. Away from the classroom, there's plenty to discover – from university colleges and museums to punting on the River Cam, shopping, parks and cafés.

A city built around learning

Cambridge's colleges, libraries and museums create an inspiring environment in which to study.

Compact & easy to explore

Much of central Cambridge can be explored on foot, making it a particularly convenient city for students and groups.

Plenty to experience

Punting, museums, historic colleges, green spaces, shopping, cafés and a lively city centre mean there's plenty to do outside lessons.

A great base for exploring

London is easily accessible, while destinations including Ely and Bury St Edmunds make excellent excursions.

Groups at Select English

The right programme for your group

We've been welcoming groups to Cambridge for more than 30 years. From small school groups to large international groups, our experienced team will work with you to find the programme that best suits your students.
There are two ways to bring a group to Select English:

Join our international summer courses

July & August

Bring your students to Cambridge as a group while giving them the experience of studying and socialising with young people from around the world.

Students join our international classes and activity programme, with a choice of homestay and residential courses for different ages. Group leaders travel with their students and our team is there throughout the stay to provide support and help everything run smoothly.

Ideal for groups looking for:

- Multinational classes
- A ready-made academic and activity programme
- Summer residential or homestay options
- Plenty of opportunities to use English with students from other countries
- Optional additional excursions

Create a programme for your group

Available throughout the year

We can create a tailor-made programme around the needs, interests and objectives of your group.

Choose the length of stay, number of English lessons, academic content, accommodation, activities and excursions. Programmes can range from General English with a cultural programme to courses focusing on subjects such as science, business, literature, exam preparation or preparation for university study.

Ideal for groups looking for:

- Their own classes
- Flexible dates and course length
- A programme linked to their school curriculum
- Specialist academic content
- A bespoke activity and excursion programme

Talk to us about your group

You don’t need to arrive with a finished programme. Tell us about your students, dates and objectives and we’ll help you put the right course together.

Accommodation in Cambridge

A comfortable place to call home

Where students stay is an important part of their experience with Select English. We offer carefully selected homestay accommodation throughout the year, with residential accommodation also available on summer courses.

Homestay

Staying with a local host gives students the opportunity to experience everyday life in Cambridge and use their English outside the classroom.

Our homestays are carefully selected and regularly visited by our Accommodation Team. Breakfast and dinner are included, and we are on hand throughout the stay if students need any help or support.

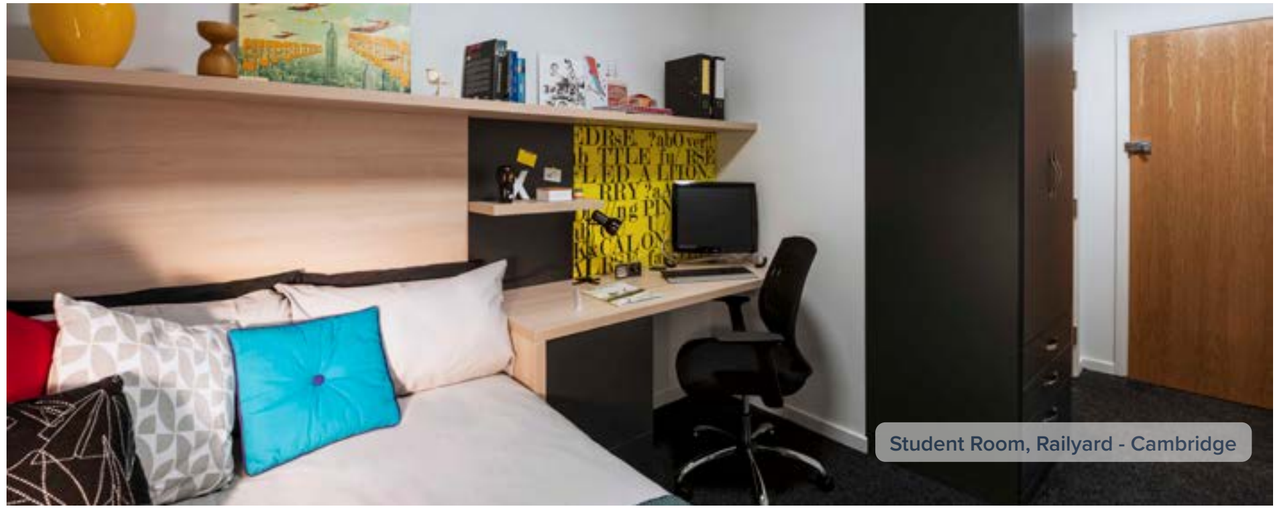

Residential

Students on our Cambridge Juniors and Cambridge Adults summer courses can also choose residential accommodation in Cambridge.

Our residences are within walking distance of the school, giving students the opportunity to live more independently while remaining close to their classes and the city centre.

Homestay Accommodation

Experience Everyday life in Cambridge

Staying with a local host gives students the opportunity to experience life in Cambridge outside the classroom and to use their English in everyday situations.

Our accommodation is carefully selected and regularly visited by our Accommodation Team. We also monitor accommodation through student feedback and are available to help if students have any questions or problems during their stay.

Rooms

Adult students normally stay in single rooms. Junior students travelling on our programmes normally share with one or more student.

Meals

Homestay accommodation is half-board, with breakfast and dinner provided by the host. At dinner, hosts spend time with students, providing an opportunity to talk and use English.

We can cater for a wide range of dietary requirements. Please tell us about any allergies, medical, religious or other dietary requirements when booking.

Laundry, bedding & towels

Bed linen is provided. For longer stays, such as a two-week course, students will have a laundry service during their stay. Students should bring their own towels.

Using English at home

English is the language of communication in our homestays. During the summer, we aim to mix nationalities wherever possible, encouraging students to use English outside the classroom. Students from the same group or nationality can also be placed together if requested.

Private Home Accommodation

Occasionally, students aged 18+ may be placed in private home accommodation. Private homes accommodate more than four students and provide meals and laundry service in the same way as our homestays.

Because more students are accommodated in the home, there may be less opportunity for interaction with the host than in homestay accommodation.

Meals

Students on our Cambridge Juniors course receive breakfast and dinner at their residence, with lunch provided as part of their daily programme.

Cambridge Adults students have access to kitchen facilities and can prepare their own meals.

Cleaning, bedding, towels & laundry

Bed linen is provided and bedrooms are cleaned during students' stay. Students should bring their own towels.
Cambridge Juniors: Students staying for two weeks will have a laundry service once during their stay.
Cambridge Adults: Students can use the on-site laundry facilities at the residence.

Facilities

Our residences have Wi-Fi and communal areas where students can relax and socialise.

Our lessons are designed to help students develop their English skills, build confidence and communicate more effectively. Our qualified teachers create lively, engaging classes with plenty of opportunities for students to practise their English and learn from one another.

International classes

On our summer courses, students study alongside learners from around the world, giving them opportunities to communicate in English with students from different countries and cultures.

The right level

Students are placed in classes according to their level of English, helping teachers provide lessons that are appropriately challenging and useful.

Active learning

We believe students learn best when they are actively involved. Lessons include pair work, group discussions, projects, games and other activities, encouraging students to participate and use English as much as possible.

Qualified teachers

Our qualified teachers are supported by our academic team throughout the programme, helping us maintain consistently high standards of teaching across our courses.

Student Welfare & Support

Here to help throughout your stay

The safety and wellbeing of our students is very important to us. Our team is available throughout the programme to provide support and help students enjoy their time with Select English.

Support when you need it

Students can speak to our staff if they have a problem or need help during their stay. We also provide a 24-hour emergency phone number.

Looking after under-18s

We provide different levels of supervision depending on students' ages and the course they are attending. Each course has its own Care of Under 18s Statement, which explains supervision, free time, curfews and other arrangements.

16–17 year-olds on Adult and Young Adult Courses

Students aged 16 and 17 can join our Cambridge Adults and Magdalene College courses, where they study alongside students aged 18 and over. They have more independence than students on our junior courses and are not supervised at all times, though attendance and curfews are monitored and Parents or guardians are given clear information about the level of care provided and must give their consent before the course begins.

Trained staff

Our staff receive safeguarding training and know what to do if they have concerns about a student's safety or wellbeing. First-aid trained staff are also available.

Accommodation support

Our Accommodation Team supports students staying in homestay and residential accommodation. Students can contact us if they have any questions or problems with their accommodation.

English + Science

Explore science while developing your English
Part of the Cambridge Juniors programme · Ages 13–17

English + Science combines English language learning with practical, engaging Science classes. Students spend 10 hours each week studying English and 10 hours studying Science, while enjoying the same accommodation, activities, excursions and support as students on Cambridge Juniors.

Learn through science
Science classes are taught by specialist teachers and follow a topic-based programme. Students explore scientific ideas through practical activities, experiments and group work, using English as they learn.

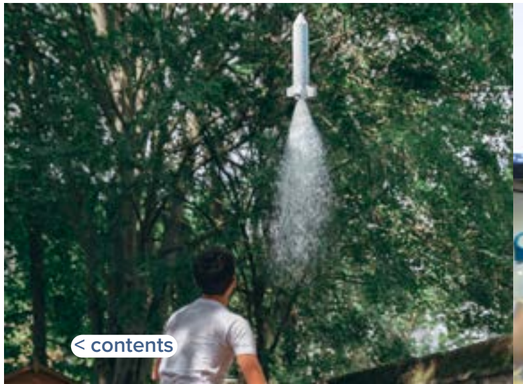

English in a new context
Studying Science in English gives students another way to develop their language skills. They learn and use scientific vocabulary, communicate with classmates and practise explaining ideas and results in English.

The Cambridge Juniors experience
Outside the classroom, English + Science students join the Cambridge Juniors programme, including afternoon and evening activities and two full-day excursions to London. Students can choose homestay or residential accommodation, with meals included.

English & Football

Develop your English and your game
Part of the Cambridge Juniors programme · Ages 13–17

English + Football combines the full Cambridge Juniors English programme with specialist football training. Students develop their football skills while studying English and enjoying the international experience of our Cambridge summer programme.

Develop your game
Training sessions help students improve their technical skills, tactical understanding and fitness. Sessions include individual and team activities, with opportunities to work on passing, control, dribbling, shooting, attacking and defending.

English in a new context
The programme is suitable for students with different levels of football experience. Sessions are adapted to the ability of the players and combine skills training with small-sided games, match play and friendly competition.

More than football
Playing as part of an international group gives students another opportunity to communicate in English, work as a team and build confidence. Football sessions complement their English lessons and the wider Cambridge Juniors experience.

The Cambridge Juniors experience
Students follow the same English programme and have the same accommodation, meals, excursions, supervision and support as other Cambridge Juniors students. Football training replaces some of the standard afternoon activities.

Magdalene College

Study, live and experience a Cambridge University College

The Magdalene College Course, is designed for older students who want to develop their English while building skills for future study and work. Students live and study at Magdalene College and enjoy a programme combining learning with activities and opportunities to explore Cambridge.

Learning English

The Select Future Focus syllabus helps students develop their English alongside practical academic and professional skills. Students work on areas such as communication, presentations, teamwork and critical thinking, helping them become more confident using English in situations they may meet at university or in their future careers.

Learning beyond the classroom

Cambridge provides an inspiring setting for the programme. Workshops, projects and visits give students opportunities to explore new ideas and use their English in different contexts, connecting what they learn in class with the world around them.

Accommodation & meals

Students stay at Magdalene College, a historic Cambridge University college close to the city centre. Accommodation and meals are provided at the College, giving students the opportunity to experience living and studying in a university environment.

Activities & excursions

Outside their classes, students enjoy a programme of social and cultural activities in Cambridge, with opportunities to meet other students and experience the city. The programme also includes excursions to London, giving students the chance to explore beyond Cambridge.

Supervision & welfare

The Magdalene College course offers students more independence than our Cambridge Juniors course. Students aged 16 and 17 have more freedom to explore Cambridge and spend time with friends, while our team is available throughout the programme to provide help and support when needed.

Learn, explore and enjoy Cambridge

Our Cambridge Adults course gives students the opportunity to improve their English while enjoying an independent summer experience in Cambridge. Study with people from around the world, explore the city and make the most of your time in the UK.

Learning English

Lessons focus on developing practical English skills and building confidence in communication. Classes are active and engaging, with opportunities to practise speaking, listening, reading and writing while working with students from different countries. Our aim is to help students communicate more confidently and use their English effectively in everyday situations.

Accommodation & meals

Students can choose between homestay and residential accommodation.
In homestay, students stay with a local host, with breakfast and dinner provided. Students choosing residence stay in shared apartments in Cambridge, with kitchen facilities and greater independence.
See our Accommodation pages for full details of both options.

Enjoy Cambridge

Outside the classroom, students have plenty of time to explore Cambridge and enjoy the city independently. Its cafés, restaurants, museums, parks, shops and historic centre are all within easy reach.

Activities & excursions

Students can join a programme of activities and excursions alongside their English lessons. These provide opportunities to discover more of Cambridge and the UK, while meeting other international students and using English outside the classroom.

Supervision & welfare

Cambridge adults gives students more independence than our Cambridge Juniors course. Students aged 16 and 17 have more freedom to explore Cambridge and spend time with friends, while our team is available throughout the programme to provide help and support when needed.

Students aged 16 and 17

Students aged 16 and 17 are still treated as minors and have additional care arrangements, including daily attendance checks and a curfew. However, because activities are optional, they have more unsupervised free time than students on Cambridge Juniors.
